Living

‘God’s story’ is the overarching narrative that informs and shapes all our practice and by which all practice is tested. It provides the framework or tool by which students and teachers understand life and the world. ‘Our story’ and ‘My story’ are understood and shaped by ‘God’s story.’

(Transformational Education: A Framework for Christian Teaching, pg 70)

Learning

JOMO (Joy of Missing Out)

Last week Christina Crook, founder and CEO of JOMO(campus), hosted a webinar focused on helping families plan to have a “more joyful summer” by providing ideas for:

- How to make realistic, healthy summer screen plans,
- How to encourage more creativity, connection, and intentional tech use over the break and,
- How to help kids set personal goals for the summer months.

She shared a Family Summer Guide and you can find a replay of the webinar HERE. Schools have permission to share the webinar with their school communities; as well, you can find other fantastic resources for “helping families thrive in a digital age” on the JOMO Family page (e.g., Family email templates, Summer Tips Graphic, Family Guidebook for Digital Well-being, etc.). Let us know if your school community would like to engage further with JOMO.

Leading

Leadership Cohort Gathering

Leadership Cohort Gathering: It was good to spend the time together last week learning with and from each other, deepening relationships and having the opportunity to “get away” for a short period of time. If you weren’t able to complete the form regarding PCCE strategic planning, we’re still accepting responses.

Job Postings

A reminder that PCCE schools can post job openings on the PCCE website, as well as SCSBC’s and Edvance’s, free of charge. To post on the PCCE site, contact our office (office@pcce.ca)

Looking Ahead

May 23: Tft 101 - Celebration of Learning (on Zoom)
