Learning Assistance & Special Education Coordinator(s)

Langley Christian Elementary seeks to be a school where students, teachers, and community flourish together; a place of grace, love, and safety. LCS values and promotes the inclusion of students with learning differences and special needs in the classroom setting with their peers to the greatest extent possible.

We are seeking applicants who:

- Are BC certified teachers (or able to become certified in BC)
- Have a minimum 2 years of successful classroom teaching experience
- Have experience in supporting diverse learning needs in the classroom setting
- Have certification in special education - or additional coursework/training in special ed.

Additional courses in educational assessment, autism, learning disabilities, adapting and modifying curriculum, and teaching to diversity are an asset. This position includes working with the other Learning Assistance and Special Ed. Coordinators at the elementary campus, as well as, working as part of the K - 12 Educational Support Services team.

Please submit the following to elementary principal, John van der Leek.
